

We tapped the knowledge of three bowling greats. Combined it with the cutting-edge technology of Throbot™. And created three classics.

The Brunswick MVP™ Series.

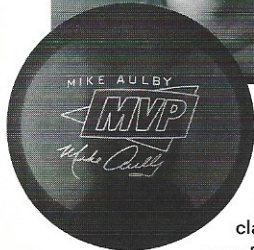

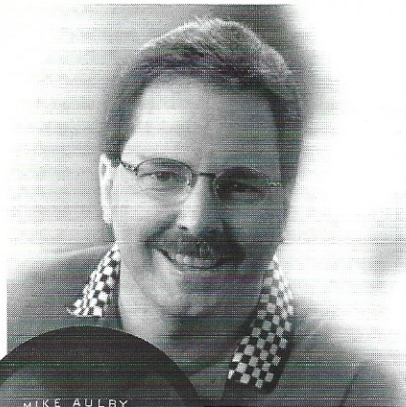

Mike Aulby. Parker Bohn III. Walter Ray Williams Jr. Three of the best bowling has to offer. And now, the driving force behind three new balls. Each player took an element of Brunswick technology, blended it with his years of experience, and created a ball that meets his own demanding standards. Featuring the Most Valuable Performance of a reactive urethane coverstock. And the Most Valuable Perk — an affordable price.

Line Up With The Perfect Lineup.

Line Up with Bowling's MVPs.

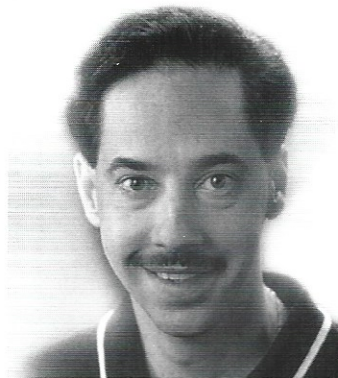

The Mike Aulby MVP. Technology Meets Talent.

Bowling's only Super Slam winner took the cutting-edge technology of Throbot™ to create a classic, Aulby-style. Featuring a 3-piece compound core for increased length, combined with a reactive urethane coverstock for more skid/snap and high RG mass distribution that is clean through the front part of the lane. With peak hook potential and backend reaction.
