

A STRIKING COMBO.

First, meet Jekyll. Refined, well-liked, smart looking. His polished demeanor makes him suitable for any normal lane condition. Jekyll can't be beat. But beware. He harbors a secret. It's the chemistry that brings you Jekyll's alter ego, Hyde. Stalking the lanes, craving oil and friction, striking terror. Hyde knows no mercy. Jekyll. Hyde. Different to the core. Each with a purpose. Together, a killer combo. Pick your poison.
