

Do something TABOO.

It's EASY to break the rules
when you NEVER follow them
in the first place.

Hammer. bowling's original rule breaker is at it again.

Introducing the hot new Taboo. First we started with the venerable Black Widow core. Then we "borrowed" (okay, we stole it) coverstock technology from some of the best chemistries in bowling. And, as if that wasn't enough, it's our first ball to be poured with our game-changing HD color process. What's that mean for you? Far more hook and continuation in the backend culminating in a ball that just strikes more.

Nothing hits like a Hammer.
