

Leverage (lev-er-ij)

1. To exert power or influence on
2. Strategic advantage; power to act effectively
3. Power or ability to act or to influence people, events, decisions

Soon to be added:

LevRG

1. An industry standard set in June of 2007, courtesy of MoRich Enterprises, pertaining to the most powerful bowling ball ever produced.

