

If you've got the need for Speed, we've got balls to the wall.

As you can see,
New Bayer™/Alka-Seltzer™ / Brunswick
Driver Buckshot Jones has a simple message for those following the leader.

Check the oil.

Stare down the straightaway.

Rev it up. Then watch the pit crew scramble as you crash thru the pins. Only

Brunswick brings together accelerated engineering

techniques with cover stock materials developed by Bayer

Corp. in one high-octane, high-performance machine: Speed Zone™ the first ball in history with ArrowD™. Its revolutionary reactive cover stock delivers straight ahead, aerodynamic action at the start, and unbelievable cornering at the finish line — for super speed and full-throttle power. Your game has the need for speed.
