

Introducing the latest in lane domination.

By combining a modified version of our DC core, a new fully adjustable reactive coverstock, and a price that is easy on the wallet, we have created a ball that is a must have for all league bowlers. The CENTAUR was designed to easily get through the heads, start revving up in the midlane, and make a strong but predictable backend move. For more information visit us at:

www.visionarybowling.com

