

ARE YOU HOOKED ON SPEED?

AMF 300™ is all charged up about our new high performance ball, the Velocity™. This combination of all new cover and core is our best to date. The new Velocity core gives you symmetrical predictability with enhanced mass bias performance. Surround it with our new Mach-1™ Particle coverstock for a reaction that's super clean in the front and truly sideways on the back for incredible entry angle. We wrapped all this performance and power in a phenomenal looking ball that's sure to get noticed. Velocity...when you feel the need for speed!
