

meets his match

At last, a ball that knows no fear, AMF's New Purple Angle. It strikes even through monster oil.

AMF's New Purple Angle—a ball like no other. A unique soft urethane formula and an oil-defeating “soft sand” finish, handles oil like no ball ever could handle oil before. You get more control and when you get more control you get more strikes.

Now the awesome Angle arsenal is complete . . . there is the Black Angle for light to average oil, the Blue Angle for medium oil and now you have the new Purple Angle to handle oily monsters. Now when you strike oil, have no fear—strike back with the new Purple Angle. At your Bowling Pro Shop.
