

SHOCK TREATMENT

The Charger from Brunswick.

You've been there before.

You're shooting for a big series and the lanes start to break down. And you start missing. That's when you need a ball that can get you back on the money.

A ball like Brunswick's Charger.

Its secret is a medium-hard rubber cover that can help you roll a tighter hook into the pocket.

So once you get your line, it's a lot easier to keep.

The Charger is powerful, too. With a special composition core, it can produce incredible pin action.

So when you need shock treatment, strike back with Brunswick's popularly priced Charger. See your Brunswick dealer today for full details.
