ORBIT

ENGINEERED TO ORBIT THE CORE

To make a winner, start with a proven single piece weight block. Add the most versatile urethane cover stock available. And close with a new matte finish process. Result, the new Orbit Wine. We call it the ultimate in urethane ball design. Bowlers call it the best.

Or take a respected, single piece weight block. Orbit the core with Reactive Pearl-Max cover stock and add a deep factory polish. Result, the new Orbit Red Pearl, the best choice for length and hook.

Get the track flare and revolutions you've been looking for. Get the Orbit and start hooking with power.
