

Give your bowling buddies a kung fu kick in the keister.

Walk into the lanes. Pull out the Tai Chi™. Immediately you become the boss of the bowl. And once your pals see its awesome, black light glow-in-the-dark power, they'll want a piece of the action, too. But like the Zebra Fun Balls™, the new Tai Chi Super Fun Ball™ will be made in limited quantities – not everybody can have one. So reserve it now. You'll be kung fu kicking yourself if you don't.
