

When the game changes, so do the Rules.

High-tech for high scores.

Introducing the Rule GP²™, the newest high-performance innovation from the Track team. The Rule GP² defies logic. Never has the industry seen a particle ball that is aggressive in the midlane without giving up angular, continuous backend motion in heavier oil environments. The Rule GP² features a combination of two different particles precision-injected into the aggressive Goo™ reactive Track then matched the new coverstock with the large-volume Morpheus 1.0" core; added the high-volume Rev-Lever attachment from the Rule™ and the Xception™ core for strong mass bias; raised the RG for more energy retention; and attached a flip block for awesome backend reaction. Aggressive in the front and the backend, the Rule GP² delivers the technology that has made Track the industry leader in core/coverstock innovation.

Add the Rule GP² to the Rule and the Xception, and make your competition suffer.

EVOLUTIONARY. REVOLUTIONARY.
